

Nute, Dr. W. H. Exeter, N.H.

Cortlandt Hill lived in his house. On Feb. 24, 1926, during a scarlet fever epidemic at Phillips Exeter Academy, young Hill wrote to his father of Dr. Nute's greater competence than that of the school's doctor. He also mentions Gaspard Farrer as being then in Florida. Mrs. Nute is mentioned on Sept. 21, 1924
