

Wenatchee - Apples

June [?], 1927

Mickel, fruit man at Wenatchee, has resigned to act as agent for Lyons of London. He has found there a market for apples and now has orders for almost 300 cars. He figures that 1000 carloads of apples go to England from that one place.

Family Papers