 Correspondence relating to the garden's finances (1956-1966), a list of contributors (1955-1963), lists of roses purchased, and a check register (1955-1969). The Veterans Memorial Rose Garden Commission, administered under the Veterans' Service Building Commission (predecessor to the CAAPB), was formed in 1955 to plan and create a rose garden on the Capitol grounds as a Minnesota veterans memorial. It received its income from volunteer contributions from garden groups, veterans' organizations, business firms, and private individuals. Its books were closed in 1969.
