DISCLOSURE REGARDING INTENT TO OBTAIN CONSUMER REPORTS

In connection with considering your application for employment with the Minnesota Historical Society (MNHS), MNHS may conduct a background check on you. This will happen only if you are offered employment. If you are offered employment, you will receive an authorization form and a questionnaire. Your signature on the authorization form will allow us to conduct the background check. The questionnaire provides us the information needed to do so. Passing this screening is a condition of employment.

When employers use another organization (referred to as a consumer reporting agency) to conduct such a background check, the information the employer receives is called a consumer report. This consumer report may contain information regarding an applicant's credit standing, capacity, or worthiness, character, general reputation, personal characteristics or mode of living. If an investigative consumer report is obtained, it may contain information obtained through personal interviews with sources such as your neighbors, friends, or associates, regarding your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living.

For information about the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), the federal law that governs background checks, www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street N.W., Washington, DC 20552.

Again, if the MNHS offers you a position, you will receive a form requesting your written authorization for obtaining consumer report(s) about you and a questionnaire. If the MNHS conducts a background check on you, you have the right to obtain a copy of the report. To request such a copy, please complete the box below and return it to MNHS, Human Resources, 345 Kellogg Boulevard West, St. Paul, MN 55102.

You have the right to receive a copy of your consumer report(s), free of charge, should one or more report be obtained for employment reasons. Check below if you want to receive a copy of the report(s).

☐ Yes, I wish to be furnished with a copy of my consumer report(s) should one be obtained by the Minnesota Historical Society.
