Official Big Three Victory Announcement Due Today

TRUMAN TO SPEAK AT 8 A.M. TODAY

Prague, May 8 — The Big Three victory announcement is scheduled for 8 A.M. today in Prague under the auspices of the international Olympic Committee, according to an official announcement today.

The announcement is expected tooutline the major points of the agreement, including the terms of surrender, and the establishment of Allied occupation zones in Europe. The three leaders of the Big Three — President Franklin D. Roosevelt of the United States, Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Great Britain, and Premier Joseph Stalin of the Soviet Union — are expected to make separate speeches on the occasion.

The announcement is expected to be broadcast live worldwide, with translations in English, French, and Russian.

Duluth stresses prayers in V-E observance today

BONDS HIT $1,750,000

More than $1,750,000 in bonds has been subscribed in the Duluth area alone, according to the local War Bond Office.

Continued on Page 6, Column 1

PEACE NEWS FLASHED TO WORLD BY AP

The headlines of The Press announced prominently that President Truman would make the Big Three victory announcement at 8 A.M. today.

Staying on Job Plea Made

"The news on V-E Day is not the end of the war," President Truman said in a message to the nation today. "It is only the beginning of the end."

CHURCHILL CALLS TREATY

"The Big Three victory announcement will mark a new chapter in world history," Prime Minister Churchill said in a message to the nation today. "It is a great day for freedom and democracy."

AP's Flash Backed Up

The Associated Press has provided comprehensive coverage of the Big Three victory announcement, with reports from all over the world.

Lyon's Liberation King Leopold

The liberation of Lyon marked a major victory for the Allied forces in the Battle of France. The city of Lyon was the capital of the Kingdom of France until 1789, and its liberation was a symbolic victory for the Allies.

Continued on Page 6, Column 4

ALLIES SMASH AHEAD ON OKOTA, TORNEO

By Associated Press

The Allied forces are advancing in a strong assault on the Axis forces in northern Italy.

Continued on Page 6, Column 4

Oso Press Again Free

The Oso Press, the newspaper of the city of Oso, Washington, has been released from government control.

Continued on Page 6, Column 4

O.S.O. Boeing 377 Stratocruiser

The O.S.O. Boeing 377 Stratocruiser, the newest model of the popular jumbo jet, has been delivered to the Oso Press.

Continued on Page 6, Column 4

WASHINGTON — Feb. 28 — With the crisis in Korea intensifying, President Truman has called for a national study of the Korean War. The President has asked Congress to appropriate $500 million for the study, which will be conducted by a special commission of experts in various fields.

Continued on Page 6, Column 4

PARTIAL RECONVERSION SEEN WITHIN SIX MONTHS

Washington — Feb. 28 — Partial reconversion to peacetime will begin within three months, according to a report by the President's Council on Defense Conversion.

Continued on Page 6, Column 4

The Duluth News-Tribune

DULUTH, MINN., TUESDAY, MAY 8, 1945

VOL. 76—NO. 5

FOSSIL, CONTINUED

[Weather Forecast]

[Weather Forecast]

[Weather Forecast]