Floors 4-7 are closed to the public. They include private offices and conference rooms.

Flour Tower

Ride a giant elevator through eight levels of the building and back in time. The dramatic use of lighting, sound, and special effects bring to life the powerful, noisy, and often dangerous process of transforming grain into flour.

Experience begins on Level 1 and exits on Level 8. Guests must stay seated throughout the show. Twelve minute continuous experience. Time-specific reservations required. English and Spanish captioning.

Low lighting • Flashing lights • Loud explosion sounds

Exhibit Gallery

See 19th century milling machines, trace the journey of wheat from farm to market, and design your own cereal box.

Flexible seating throughout • Noise level dependent on visitation

Water Lab

Get your hands wet and learn about water power with interactive water tables.

Bromine chemical smell • Wet • Busy, loud space

West Engine House Theater

Watch Minneapolis in 19 Minutes Flat!, a cinematic tour through 400 years of the area's history. Movie plays twice hourly.

Low lighting • Loud audio • English captioning

Quiet Room

This space is available for guests needing a sensory break, nursing parents, or personal spiritual practice.

Located on Level 2. See staff for access to Quiet Room.

Baking Lab

Learn how food production has changed over time with exhibits, demos, and freshly baked samples.

Brighter lighting • Allergens present • Baking smells

Observation Deck

Level 9 of Mill City Museum includes a glass-walled interior observation deck and a seasonal exterior observation deck to view Owámníyomni (St. Anthony Falls). These spaces can trigger a fear of heights for some guests.

Elevators

Mill City Museum includes three elevators.

Hydraulic Elevator

Transports guests from the Mill Commons Lobby (Level 3) to the Rail Corridor, Education Lobby (Level 2), and the Exhibit Gallery (Level 1).

Flour Tower

Show begins on level 1 and ends on Level 8.

Glass Elevator

Glass Elevator returns guest from Levels 8 & 9 to Level 1. Guests who chose not to ride the Flour Tower may take elevator to Level 8 or Level 9 with staff assistance.
