No wonder Joliet Prison Convicts Started Big Riot

Juliet Hill, June 8.—Hearing in the Illinois Supreme Court of the State today by some officers to the violent attack on a Joliet prison by 150 convicted criminals yesterday morning when the institution was forced open and in the course of which 3,500 convicts went loose. The riot resulted in the loss of about $50,000 worth of property and many thousands of dollars in loss to the institution. It is reported that five persons were killed and 15 wounded. The riot started when an officer was shot and several others wounded. The prisoners then started a fire and tried to capture the officers. The riot was quelled by the use of tear gas and bullets. Three prisoners are suspected of starting the riot. The trial of the prisoners is expected to start in about three weeks.
