

HISTORIC FORESTVILLE CASTING GOLF

Recreational fishing in Forestville has been a popular past-time dating back over 100 years when the Minnesota Fish Commission would stock Thomas Meighen's personal streams with trout. Today the state park sees thousands of anglers from all over the world who come to this area to fish for trout. We offer this casting course to let both novice and experienced anglers practice their skills before getting in the river while exploring one of Minnesota's designated historic sites.

COURSE ETIQUETTE/RULES

- Holes range from par 2 to par 4.
Lowest score wins
- Start on any hole
- Furthest from the pin is the next one to cast.
- Be aware of your surroundings, do not cast if anyone is behind or in front of you.
- For safety reasons please use a bobber or something else that isn't sharp at the end of your line.
- Course may be closed due to events or other activities in the state park.
- If you don't have a pole you can check one out at Historic Forestville when the site is open.
