Name: Jenny Lopez Class Period: 8

Topic: The Montgomery Bus Boycott

Task: Use your notes to answer the questions below. Summarize your information into a two sentence thesis. The first sentence should be a summary of the 5W's of your topic. The second sentence should explain the impact your topic had in history.

Question:	Answer:
Who was involved/ Who was affected?	Rosa Parks, residents of Montgomery, the Montgomery Improvement Association (MIA), Civil Rights Movement leaders, city officials, Martin Luther King, Jr.
What happened?	After Parks was arrested, Civil Rights leaders organized the MIA to lead the bus boycott, which economically hurt the city. A lawsuit followed that went to the Supreme Court, which ruled segregation as unconstitutional.
Where did it take place?	Montgomery, Alabama
When did it happen?	The boycott began December 5, 1955 and lasted 381 days.
Why did it happen? What caused it?	Civil Rights leaders wanted to overturn segregation laws on public transportation. King and others used a boycott to gain support through non-violence.
Why is it important? How did it change history? Think about your theme connection!	The boycott eventually caused the city to overturn segregation laws. The boycott drew national attention and put King in the spotlight, giving him the ability to organize similar protests using nonviolent resistance.

Thesis Sentence 1: Summarize the 5W's.

The Montgomery Bus Boycott began in 1955, sparked by Rosa Parks' refusal to give up her bus seat to a white passenger.

Thesis Sentence 2: So what? How did your topic change history?

The year-long boycott and the Supreme Court victory brought national attention to segregation, demonstrating the power of nonviolent protest as an effective communication strategy for other civil rights protests.
