1. This year’s National History Day theme is:

___________________________________________________________________________________

2. A debate is a discussion between people, or groups, in which they express different opinions about something. Three other words for debate are:

__________________________     __________________________     __________________________

3. Diplomacy is the work of maintaining good relationships between groups through discussion and compromise. Three other words for diplomacy are:

__________________________     __________________________     __________________________

4. Four questions will help you to find important points in your project to connect your topic to the theme. Write down the four questions from the presentation.

| | | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

5. Use the presentation to fill in the blanks in the following sentences.

- Debates can be _________________ or _________________.
- Debates can exist on the _________________ _________________.
- Debate is _________________ in many ways.
- Think _________________ about diplomacy.
- Diplomacy can be _________________ or _________________.
- Diplomacy can _________________ or _________________.