

MNHS ANNUAL REPORT

FISCAL YEAR 2019

FROM THE PRESIDENT

In my first full year as president of the Executive Council I have seen firsthand the impressive commitment of our staff, volunteers, interns, members, state leaders, donors, and visitors. It is because of this commitment that MNHS is stronger and more vibrant than ever.

I am pleased to report that MNHS had a stellar fiscal year 2019. The Creating Our Future Campaign wrapped up at the end of 2018 having exceeded its goal! Thanks to you, this success will support preserving important historic sites, digitizing Minnesota's newspapers, and investing in educational programs for years to come.

Through exhibits we showcased the history of Somali Minnesotans and 100 years of the Ojibwe jingle dress tradition. In May, rock and roll came to the History Center with an exhibit about the iconic First Avenue, the heart of Minnesota's music scene. At historic sites, preparations are underway for construction to begin on the Historic Fort Snelling revitalization, while much-needed preservation work continued at Mill City Museum. And we said a fond farewell to Lee Radzak, who retired after 36 years as the keeper of Split Rock Lighthouse.

I am also very excited about what's coming ahead. We have engaged the public in a process to solicit their input on the name of Historic Fort Snelling in light of the expanded stories we are sharing there and the revitalization of the site. Thousands of people have given their input through an online survey and many have participated in six forums we held across the state. We are grateful for everyone's participation and insight.

This December, our first permanent exhibit devoted solely to Native American history, Our Home: Native Minnesota, will open at the History Center followed by She Voted: Her Fight, Our Right, which marks the 100th anniversary of the passage of the 19th Amendment. These flagship exhibits will round out a year of programs and initiatives that draw on our shared history.

Our new CEO and director, Kent Whitworth, completed his first full year with MNHS and has traveled across the state meeting members, donors, legislators, and other key stakeholders. He has joined a strong organization with dedicated employees who work hard every day to collect, preserve, and share the stories of all Minnesotans so they may be known and remembered.

Your support of MNHS makes all of this possible, and for that I offer my heartfelt thanks and gratitude.

FROM THE DIRECTOR AND CEO

It has been a fulfilling first full year at MNHS as I have had the privilege to get to know our network of historic sites, extensive collections, and most importantly the remarkable people—staff, board members, interns, volunteers, members, donors, and our many partners—who make this organization what it is today. I am encouraged each day as together we strive to live out the elements of our culture at MNHS—respect, collaboration, innovation, and one MNHS (We are a community with a shared purpose: fulfilling our mission and vision).

Our mission boldly states that we use the power of history to transform lives. To accomplish this, we must act as both connectors and historians, applying the historical process to deepen our understanding of the past and reaching out to people of all backgrounds in ways that bring us together rather than divide us.

The important work of clarifying core functions and identifying new strategic priorities is well underway. Over the next twelve months, the strategies will continue to emerge and the long-term path will become more clear. The pace of our planning is intentionally deliberate and is perhaps best explained by the proverb, "If you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, go together."

In 2020, we look forward to providing you a multitude of opportunities to engage with Minnesota history. MNHS invites you to research our history, discuss our history, sing our history, dance our history, and even taste our history!

I hope you are energized as you read about several fiscal year 2019 highlights. We certainly could not do it without your commitment to the Minnesota Historical Society! We draw inspiration from your passion for history, your love of our great state, and your loyalty to and generosity toward this amazing organization.

With deep gratitude,

Kent Whitworth, director and CEO

MINNESOTA'S HISTORICAL RESOURCES

Sharing access to meaningful places, programs, resources, events, services, and exhibits

VISITATION

Attendance dropped 7% from the previous fiscal year due in part to a change in the way visitors are reported at the State Capitol. Highlights included:

- 1,034,058 visitors
- 223,133 field trip visitors
- 23,005 member households
- 2.4 million engagements with MNHS on social media
- 2.8 million visitors to our website MNHS.org, 4.5 million times

HISTORIC SITES & MUSEUMS

Highlights from MNHS' network of 26 historic sites and museums included a jingle dress exhibit, a lighthouse legacy, and more:

- MNHS historic sites and museums became part of the national Blue Star Museums program, which offered free general admission to active-duty military personnel and their families during the summer at museums across the country.
- Split Rock Lighthouse's longest-serving keeper, Lee Radzak, retired in April after nearly four decades caring for the National Historic Landmark. The news made national and international headlines.
- Mille Lacs Indian Museum and Trading Post shared the history of the Ojibwe jingle dress with the exhibit Ziibaaska' iganagooday: The Jingle Dress at 100.
- Mill City Museum launched the first major update to the interactive Water Lab since the museum opened in 2003.

- Jeffers Petroglyphs offered extended Saturday hours, staying open until 7 pm so visitors could see the rock carvings at dusk.
- The History Center offered a wide range of programs in support of The 1968 Exhibit, including MLK Weekend closing programs; community programs at Hallie Q. Brown Community Center, Greater Friendship Missionary Baptist Church, the Capri Theatre, and others; and a presentation by Vice President Walter Mondale.

EXHIBITS

History Center exhibits invited guests to relive their favorite music memories and more:

Irvine Community Gallery exhibits explored topics about immigration and incarceration rates in Minnesota, and showcased the photography of Wing Young Huie and Native American teens.

MNHS PRESS

Books about a Minnesota rock legend and the golden era of department store shopping propelled readership of MNHS Press titles:

- 121,979 print and ebooks sold, up 11%
- 333,786 unique users viewed 770,418 pages on MNopedia, up 17%

GALE FAMILY LIBRARY AND DIGITAL PRESERVATION & ACCESS

MNHS dramatically improved access to collections while welcoming researchers of all ages:

- The library served 22,200 in-person and correspondence research requests.
- A new in-house digitization process allowed for 1.3 million pages to be added into the Minnesota Digital Newspaper Hub, bringing the page count to three million, representing nearly 700 newspapers in all 87 Minnesota counties dating back to 1849.

- The National Endowment for the Humanities provided MNHS a sixth grant to support participation in the National Digital Newspaper program.
- Staff digitized more than 94 government record and manuscript collections, which are now available online.

COLLECTIONS

From Green Giant to Charles A. Lindbergh, MNHS added 2,425 new items to the collections:

- Early Prince press kit and demo tape, a personal travel Bible, and a handwritten note to his lawyer.
- A photograph collection of Lindbergh on his return to the United States aboard the USS Memphis following his historic flight to France, and Navy flight goggles he wore in the 1930s.
- An 1853 Ojibwe translation of a Church of England prayer book, including sacraments, psalms, and hymns.
- Tools made by a sculpture professor to help students with limited mobility and photos of the students using them. ▼

- The manuscript collection of Maud Hart Lovelace, author of the Betsy-Tacy series.
- Several paintings by St. Paul artist Clara Mairs.
- Objects and manuscripts from the Green Giant Company, transferred from the LeSueur County Historical Society.

Double Portrait: Clara and Clem by Clara Mairs

Gift of Kathleen M. Daniels

Archaeology highlights included:

- The completion of survey and excavation work in connection with the Historic Fort Snelling revitalization project that revealed the foundations of two 19th-century buildings, and military and Native tool-making artifacts.
- A tour of archaeological sites around Lake Vermilion in St. Louis County for elders from the Bois Forte Band of Ojibwe.
- The addition of 45 collections for a total of 15,035 artifacts, representing field work conducted across 19 counties over the past seven years.

EDUCATIONAL RELEVANCE

Providing context and connecting the present with the past

CHARLES LINDBERGH HOUSE AND MUSEUM

EDUCATION AND LIFELONG LEARNING

MNHS helped students connect with the past while developing critical-thinking skills:

- 223,133 students and chaperones visited MNHS historic sites and museums on field trips.
- 20,401 students across Minnesota benefited from bus subsidies through the Legacy Field Trip Support Fund.
- 11,530 students from greater Minnesota benefited from bus and accommodation subsidies through the MacMillan Field Trip Transportation Grant.
- Northern Lights student print and digital textbook served 60,600 students, or 83% of Minnesota's 6th graders.

- 2,251 teachers participated in workshops, presentations, and sessions.

NATIONAL HISTORY DAY

More than 27,000 Minnesota students participated in National History Day, with two students taking home medals at the national competition:

- Abigail Peterson, North Lakes Academy, Forest Lake (above, 6th from left)
- Kevin Torstenson, Murray Middle School, St. Paul (above, 4th from left)

INCLUSION & DIVERSITY

Welcoming and serving all communities

NATIVE AMERICAN INITIATIVES

MNHS worked to build relationships with and advocate for Native peoples across Minnesota and beyond:

- MNHS launched the Native American Undergraduate Fellowship through a generous grant from The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation. The program provides hands-on experience for Native American students interested in pursuing careers in cultural heritage fields. ▼
- The History Center hosted the Association of Tribal Archives, Libraries, and Museums conference with more than 300 guests.

MNHS undergraduate fellows participate in statewide outreach programs. ▲▶

Luqman Mohamed, a college intern, advised on the Somalis + Minnesota exhibit.

DEPARTMENT OF INCLUSION AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Building relationships with African Americans and an innovative new memory loss program led diversity efforts last year:

- A new initiative to build sustainable relationships with specific communities got underway beginning with strategies to engage African Americans long-term. ▶
- The Heritage Studies and Public History master's program, a partnership with the University of Minnesota, celebrated its first graduating class.
- MNHS launched the US version of the award-winning House of Memories free dementia awareness program, originally developed in the UK by National Museums Liverpool. ▼

- The Woodbury Police collaborated with MNHS to develop new implicit bias training using The 1968 Exhibit to examine relationships between police and communities in the 1960s and today.
- Eighteen college fellows and 28 teen interns participated in programs that offer career building opportunities for traditionally underrepresented communities and tribal sovereign nations.

SUSTAINABILITY & STEWARDSHIP

Ensuring valued services now and for future generations

HISTORIC FORT SNELLING

As preparations for the construction of the Historic Fort Snelling revitalization project got underway, MNHS continued development of new programs, including:

- A new tour about the lives of women at Fort Snelling and a new station where staff shared stories of the 25th Infantry, a segregated African American unit known as Buffalo Soldiers. ▶
- MNHS hired Chris Belland, a captain in the Minnesota Army National Guard, as the new program and outreach manager of veterans relations.
- In addition to the Blue Star Museums program, MNHS offered free general admission for veterans, Native Americans, and their families.

- Minnesota's Secret Language School, an exhibit developed by the Twin Cities Japanese American Citizens League, showcased the stories of nearly 6,000 Japanese Americans who trained as linguists to fight in the Pacific theater during World War II. ◀
- In May, the third Dakhóta Omníciye, or gathering, was held with Dakota community members and allies sharing community knowledge, Dakota language, art, games, and storytelling. ◀

2019 LEGISLATIVE SESSION HIGHLIGHTS

MNHS is thankful for the following appropriations from the 2019 legislative session:

- $45.8 million for operations for the biennium, plus an operating adjustment of $850,000.

- $32.9 million for the biennium from the Legacy Amendment's Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund to support programs, including statewide grants that help preserve and share Minnesota history.
- Passage of a statutory change to permit local governments to fund history organizations.

STATEWIDE PRESERVATION

MNHS preservation projects included care for the statewide network of historic sites and museums, partnership programs, and Legacy funding:

- Statewide preservation projects included:
 - Conditions assessment for the MNHS 3D objects warehouse
 - Infrastructure improvements to prepare the Kellogg Center to house MNHS archaeology staff and the Office of the State Archaeologist ▼

- Window replacement at the History Center
- Asset preservation projects included:
 - Ongoing preservation of the Ruin Courtyard walls at Mill City Museum
 - Maintenance and repair at Split Rock Lighthouse, Fort Ridgely, and the Forest History Center
- MNHS partnered with the Preservation Alliance of Minnesota and Northern Bedrock to provide preservation training and rehabilitation work statewide.
- The Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund provided $6.5 million through 205 grants awarded across Minnesota, including:
 - City of Orono, Hennepin County, archaeological survey of Big Island Amusement Park

- Duluth Entertainment and Convention Center Authority, St. Louis County, repair of the bulk freighter William A. Irvin museum ▲
- Sinclair Lewis Foundation, Sauk Centre, Stearns County, predevelopment of the Sinclair Lewis Boyhood Home and Carriage House for reuse
- Norwegian-American Historical Association, Northfield, Rice County, digitization plan for the O.E. Rolvaag Collection allowing for greater public access

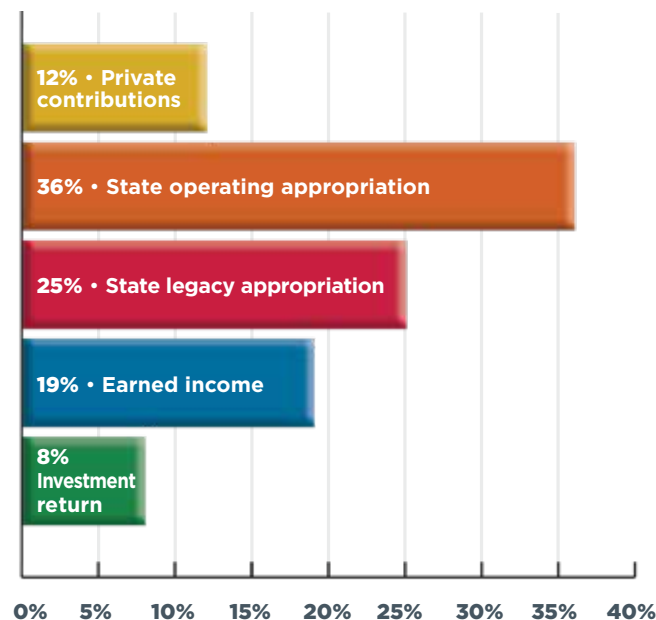

As a nonprofit, we serve the people of Minnesota. Our annual budget of about $60 million comes from three sources that work together to bring the public vibrant, crucial programs, and services: private funding, earned revenue, and public funding, including significant funding from the State of Minnesota.

Public funds, including funding from the state's general fund, provide a foundation of support and enable us to leverage non-public funds to create a nationally recognized history program. Typically, two-thirds of our operating funds come from the State of Minnesota. We deliver functions designated by law, such as preserving historic landmarks and resources, managing critical records and collections, and operating cultural destinations important to tourism. State support also includes capital funding to preserve historic buildings and construct new ones, as well as Legacy Amendment (Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund) support for new, statewide history programs, including grants for local history organizations.

The Minnesota Historical Society also receives support from donors and members. Their gifts support everything from general operations and school field trips to important acquisitions, conservation work, and community outreach. Endowment funds give MNHS strength for today and tomorrow. Finally, earned revenue from rental events, museum stores, admission fees, publication sales, and many other activities also provide a base of funding while keeping history accessible and at family-friendly prices.

CREATING our FUTURE CAMPAIGN

Thank you!

The Minnesota Historical Society gratefully acknowledges the individuals, families, and organizations who have so generously supported the Creating Our Future Campaign from January 1, 2015 to December 31, 2018. The Creating Our Future Campaign provided substantial investment in three major project areas: the revitalization of Historic Fort Snelling and the Oliver Kelley Farm, educational experiences that reach counties and communities across Minnesota, and digital preservation to expand online access and support learners of all ages.

A generous gift from John and Annette Whaley (pictured above with MNHS' Jennifer Cadwell-Vaughan) established the John and Annette Whaley Endowment Fund for History Education. The fund supports MNHS programs that train K-12 history teachers to creatively inspire their students and subsidizes program costs for teachers in need. The fund also supports the production and delivery of educational materials that bring historic Minnesota artifacts and materials from our collections into the classroom.

THE PEOPLE OF MINNESOTA

The Minnesota Historical Society gratefully acknowledges the people of Minnesota, who, through appropriations made by the Legislature and approved by the Governor, have supported MNHS in its mission. Appropriations from the state's general fund as well as the Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund/Legacy Amendment are helping Minnesotans across the state to better understand our past.

MINNESOTA LEGACY SOCIETY MEMBERS

We are grateful for the special commitment of these visionaries, whose generosity has included support of the Minnesota Historical Society by including MNHS as a beneficiary of a will or other planned gift.
